7 PRESIDING JUDGES’ STATEWIDE ADMINISTRATIVE 8 COVID-19 PRECAUTIONS ORDER

9 The Alaska Supreme Court, the Chief Justice of the Alaska Supreme Court, and 10 the presiding judges have issued orders in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Chief Justice
11 Order No. 8149 was issued on May 20, 2020 and in part requires that: “All visitors to Alaska
12 Court System courthouses must take precautions to keep other members of the public and court 13 staff safe”; “Visitors are strongly encouraged to wear a mask or other face covering”; and, “The 14 presiding judge may make these policies mandatory for any court location or district.”

15 The undersigned, in consideration of the present COVID-19 related circumstances
16 in the State of Alaska and the expert health advice that the Alaska Court System has received, 17 orders the following:

- 18 1. All persons in Alaska Court System facilities shall comply with the Alaska Court System 19 statewide COVID-19 precautions, including social distancing, any health screening in effect, 20 and the requirements of related signage. The Alaska Court System’s COVID-19 precautions
21 are subject to change and are posted on the Alaska Court System’s website. “Court 22 facilities” includes off-site locations used to conduct court proceedings.
- 23 2. All persons in Alaska Court System facilities must also comply with all applicable statewide 24 COVID-19 mandates imposed by the Governor and all applicable local COVID-19 mandates.

1 3. All visitors to Alaska Court System facilities must wear a face covering or mask which 2 covers the person's mouth and nose unless a stated exemption applies. "Visitors" includes, 3 but is not limited to: attorneys, parties, witnesses, other participants in the proceeding,
4 persons qualifying as victims under Alaska statute, persons conducting business at a Court
5 Clerk's Office, and members of the public.

6 4. All persons attending a court proceeding in person must wear a face covering or mask that 7 covers the person's nose and mouth, including the judicial officer and in-court clerk, unless a 8 stated exemption applies. The judicial officer presiding over a court proceeding with persons 9 attending in person may authorize the removal of a face covering or mask in accordance with 10 section 5 of Chief Justice Order No. 8149.¹

12 5. Court Clerk offices in each court location shall make face coverings or masks available to 13 visitors upon request.

14 6. The following persons are exempt from the face covering or mask requirements:

15 a. Any child under two years of age;

16 b. Any individual who has a mental or physical disability that prevents the person from 17 being able to wear or remove a face covering or mask, provided the person is able to 18 maintain required social distancing while in the court facility; and 19 c. Any individual who has trouble breathing, is unable to remove a face covering or mask 20 without assistance, or has been advised by a medical professional that wearing a face

24 ¹ Special Order of the Chief Justice No.8149 Regarding COVID-19 Visitor Health Precautions, 25 (d)(5): "During courtroom proceedings, the judge may authorize removal of masks or face coverings as necessary, including for purposes of witness testimony, defendant identification, or making an appropriate record, provided that appropriate social distancing or other protective measures are followed."

1 covering or mask may pose an unreasonable risk to that person, provided the person is 2 able to maintain required social distancing while in the court facility.

3 7. A person who is not in compliance with the foregoing requirements, including the face
4 covering or mask requirement, will be excluded from the court facility. Judicial Service
5 Officers shall enforce the exclusion.

6 8. A person excluded from a court proceeding may participate in or otherwise attend the court 7 proceeding by teleconference, or by videoconference if reasonably available, provided that 8 the court proceeding is not a confidential proceeding that the person is not privileged to 9 attend.

10 9. The Court Clerk for each court location shall prominently place signage at that court facility 11 informing visitors of the foregoing.

12 10. The presiding judges are continuing to monitor the COVID-19 situation and additional 13 precaution orders will be issued as warranted. A presiding judge for a District may issue an 14 order for that District or any court location(s) in the District with regards to the face covering 15 or mask requirements based on the COVID-19 circumstances that then exist in the District as 16 a whole or at particular court location(s) in the District.
